FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

QCR Holdings, Inc. and Quad City Bank & Trust New Building Groundbreaking Planned for May 15th

Quad City Bank & Trust (QCBT) and its parent company, QCR Holdings, Inc. (QCRH) are proud to announce the upcoming groundbreaking ceremony for their new building on Thursday, May 15th at 1pm. In February 2024, QCRH announced they would be constructing a new building at the southeast corner of the intersection of Forest Grove Dr. and Middle Rd. The new building will serve as the corporate headquarters for QCRH and will also expand QCBT's banking footprint in the Quad Cities as their 6th consumer banking branch.

"We will use the groundbreaking festivities to offer our thanks to our partners, including Russell Construction, Streamline Architects, Conceptual Design, Inc, IMEG and Confluence," said Laura "Divot" Ekizian, President & CEO of QCBT. "Each one is sharing their unique skills and talents to create this new headquarters. QCRH and QCBT are also committed to supporting our local trades and will be signing an IMPACT Agreement for this project."

As the local bank with the largest deposit market share in the Quad Cities area, QCBT will continue to bring top-notch banking services to all residents of the Quad Cities. QCBT will continue to operate its current branch in Moline, IL and is committed to maintaining continued operations in the Illinois Quad Cities.

"We are committed to this community, it's who we are. Whether it's through our community partnerships or oaur donations and sponsorships of hundreds of local organizations and events, we're here for the citizens of the Quad Cities. This new branch provides us with an opportunity to serve the population of the Quad Cities on a wider scale," said Laura "Divot" Ekizian, President and CEO of QCBT. "We think our expanded presence will not only enhance our customers' experience but will bring the community to us in ways we haven't yet experienced." The new building will provide more of a 'campus' feel, and the bank and its holding company expect to have the ability to host community events and share their green spaces.

Quad City Bank & Trust is one of four wholly owned subsidiary banks within QCR Holdings, Inc. and provides full-service commercial and consumer banking, as well as trust and wealth management services. Employees within the holding company provide support services for all the banks, providing consistent, efficient, and shared solutions. "Our unique structure allows us to remain true to our roots as relationship-driven community bankers, while having the ability to offer the clout of a larger institution," said Todd Gipple, President and soon to be CEO of QCRH.
